Call 1.866.456.2956

I like to remind people that work is a four-letter word, as well as a punishment for sin. At least, when Adam and Eve ate of the forbidden fruit, they began to experience the toil of work. When we seek to sanctify our work, to do what we do as well as we can for the glory of God, we can in one sense recover what it was like in paradise to work without being weary. But we must remember that we work to live, not live to work. On that note, I am leaving this week to go on my annual priests' retreat with Opus Dei outside of Houston, Texas. Five days of silence, prayer and rest, and I hope to get to see our seminarians out there as well.

One of the worst things that can happen to us is when we burn out because prudence does not dictate how and when we work. We have become so accustomed to think that efficiency and busy-ness are signs of authenticity and personhood, that we are sometimes more concerned with them than we are with people. Even in the Church, we forget that God rewards us, not because of our success, but because of our faithfulness.

Sunday is a day of rest. It is given to us by God because we need it. We also need times during the day, during the week, during the year, when we just stop to be. To be with God in prayer, to be with family and loved ones, even to have some "me" time. Remember, we are not human doings, but human beings. One powerful way to learn this is when we set aside an hour each week to come to the Adoration Chapel. We don't "do" anything there. We let ourselves "be" with Jesus. And the fruit of that timeless time spreads out into everything we do.

Some priests have a beautiful custom, which I need to start doing again, of taking their watch off before Mass. (Some laypeople have the custom of using a stopwatch to time Father's sermon, too, I am told!) Maybe all of us need to stop taking the clock so seriously and refuse to let it run our lives. Not that I'm telling you to be late for Mass, but that we must from time to time let go and let God.

Pray for me this week. I need to let go and let God. I have a lot of intentions for prayer I am carrying with me, a lot of burdens and cares that I bring with me to this graced time. I am remembering you, and your burdens and cares, as well. May we all this week, wherever we may be, on retreat or amidst the craziness of work and family life, be generous with God and with others, by giving them the gift, not of our time, but of our presence. Then God will give us all the time and energy we need to do what He wills.

baptism class Parents desiring Baptism for their children must attend a Baptism Class. The next class will be held on Tuesday, 21 February, at 6.30p in Croghan Hall Conference Room. Contact Gus Suarez to register at 420.0497.

vespers We will celebrate Solemn Vespers, or Evening Prayer, in the Church on Sundays at 5p. This 30-35 minute service is a great way to join in the public prayer of the Church at the end of the day. We invite all of our servers and their families to join us these Sundays for Vespers. We will need a Thurifer, Crucifer, 2 Acolytes and an MC for Vespers.

are you interested in learning more about the catholic faith? Our Introduction to Roman Catholicism class is for you! If you are a non-Christian, non-Catholic Christian, or a Catholic who wants to delve deeper into their Faith, you are welcome! Classes are on Tuesdays at 7p in Croghan Hall.

passion narratives of the gospel Fr Richard Tomlinson will be teaching a 5 week course on the Passion Narratives of the Gospel during Lent. Join us on Thursday nights, 9 March-6 April, at 7p in Croghan Hall. No RSVP required!

vatican II: the challenge and the promise If you missed Fr Smith's course on the Second Vatican Council, fear not! We will be releasing the audio of each class for you to listen to whenever you like. Each class will be released, one week at a time, beginning Monday, 23 January. You can find them on our website under "Homilies" and on our Facebook page.

theology of the body What does it mean to be a human person created in the image and likeness of God? What is God's plan for human love and relationships? Angela Calabro is teaching a 9 week course on St. John Paul II's Theology of the Body on Wednesdays, at 7p in the Middle School Building. The books used for this course are Man and Woman He Created Them: A Theology of the Body by St. John Paul II and Men and Women are from Eden by Dr. Mary Healy. Both of these books can be found on Amazon. For more information contact Angela at angela.calabro@princeofpeacetaylors.org or 331.3903.

This week – God's Family and Ours: The Church and the Trinity

Dr. Scott Hahn uses familiarity with family life to bring us to a deeper understanding of the Holy Trinity, and thereby a better understanding of ourselves and the Church. This presentation effectively illustrates how the "Good News" of salvation is not only being saved from our sins through the Cross of Christ, but an invitation to become and live as adopted sons and daughters of the Triune God.

pop moms The new POP Moms ministry is designed to encourage women to engage in faith filled friendships and to support each other in our vocation as mothers. We meet Monday evenings, in the middle school building from 7.30-9.30p. Our meetings begin with a Rosary and meditation on Catholic motherhood, then allow for free discussion and enjoyment of one another's company. If you have any questions, please contact Stephanie Lasitter, stephanie.lasitter@princeofpeacetaylors.org or 864.331.3905. No RSVP required!

friends of st josemaria recollections A recollection is a two hour silent retreat whose purpose is to help lay men and women sanctify their ordinary life in and through their work, family, and recreational activities. The evening consists of a meditation by a priest familiar with the Spirit of the Prelature Opus Dei, a talk on living the Christian virtues with time for spiritual reading, and an examination of conscience in front of the Blessed Sacrament. There is also the opportunity for the Sacrament of Confession. The evening closes with an optional time for fellowship, light snacks, and refreshments.
For Women: Morning of Recollection, Saturday, 9-11a (English), 18 February, 20 May.
For Men: Evening of Recollection, Thursday, 7-9p (English), 16 February, 18 May.

men's bible study The Men's Bible Study Group meets on Tuesdays at 7p in the middle school building. If you have any questions please call Michael Thompson at 864.449.7845. All are welcome.

The mission of Prince of Peace is to share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.
