I have been watching some interviews on Youtube with Fr James Mallon about his book, Divine Renovation: Bringing Your Parish From Maintenance to Mission. In it, he talks about how Catholics say that they want a vibrant, active and out-reaching parish, but that they are often resistant to the very changes that would make that happen. He talks about his painful experience as a pastor in Nova Scotia of closing and consolidating parishes. He became the first pastor of a newly merged parish, and realized that continuing to do what had been done before was merely managing decline. Perpetuating a 1950s model of parish for the 21st century was suicide for a parish, but it didn't mean that the parish was not a viable entity for Christian growth.

We have spoken before that some Catholics think of their parish as a place to go for services they want: to get the sacraments, to enjoy certain ministries, or to provide an affordable private education. But this is not what discipleship in Christ is all about. The sacraments are encounters with the living God of faith, and as such, have to be part and parcel of an entire lifestyle of faith. Ministries are not there to serve us, but so that we may serve others. The school is the principal apostolate of our parish by which we hand on the Catholic faith. If we do not understand that, then we don't understand why the parish insists on Sunday Mass attendance as just as an important part of education as the classroom, or why couples entering into marriage can't just get a marriage license and be done with it, but need to be prepared spiritually for a life together in Christ, or why ministries have to be outward centered and not inward centered.

Having a vibrant, active, and outreaching parish is not a matter of finding the right canned program to force people to go to like a magic bullet. It is not a matter of making the liturgy more entertaining, or multiplying Bible studies or apostolic works. A parish becomes vibrant, active and outreaching when every member who calls it their spiritual home is converted to be a real disciple of Jesus Christ. Interior change of heart towards truth then produces visible fruit that inspires others to engage the faith at a deeper level. Putting the cart before the horse risks short term enthusiasms followed by long term disappointment.

Be the change you want to see.
Fr Smith

the ultimate thanksgiving prayer: te deum

We praise You O God, we acknowledge You to be the Lord: all the earth now worships you, the Father everlasting.

To You all angels cry aloud, the heavens and all the powers therein; to You cherubim and seraphim continually do cry: Holy, Holy, Holy Lord, God of Hosts, heaven and earth are full of the majesty of Your glory.

The glorious company of the prophets praise You, the goodly fellowship of the prophets praise You, the noble army of martyrs praise You, the holy Church throughout all the world does acknowledge You: the Father of an infinite majesty, Your adorable true, and only Son, also the Holy Spirit, the Counselor. You are the King of glory, O Christ. You are the everlasting Son of the Father.

When you took upon Yourself to deliver man, You humbled yourself to be born of a virgin. When You had overcome the sharpness of death, You opened the kingdom of heaven to all believers. You sit at the right hand of God in the glory of the Father.

We believe that You will come to be our judge. We therefor pray You help Your servants, whom You have redeemed with Your Precious Blood. Make them to be numbered with Your saints in glory everlasting.

O Lord save Your people and bless Your heritage. Govern them and lift them up forever. Day by day we magnify You, and we worship Your name, world without end.

Vouchsafe, O Lord, to keep us this day without sin.

O Lord have mercy upon us, have mercy upon us.

O Lord, let Your mercy be upon us, as our trust is in You.

O Lord, in You I trusted, let me never be confounded.

Amen.

advent reading Fr Smith's suggested Advent reading for 2016 is Stephane Piat's A Family of Saints: The Martins of Lisieux. Many people are familiar with the story of St Therese of Lisieux, the Little Flower, a young Carmelite nun who died at a very young age and is a Doctor of the Church for her spirituality of the "little way." What many people do not know about is the story of her entire family. Her parents, Louis and Zelie Martin, were canonized this year by Pope Francis. Learn about this incredible family that pursued holiness amidst financial chaos, frequent illness, dementia, and a family of strong personalities. The Martin family is the proof that ordinary families living in the world can produce tremendous saints. You can get this book at Amazon https://www.amazon.com/Family-Saints-Martins-Lisieux-Saints-Th%C3%A9r%C3%A8se/dp/1621640795/ref=sr_1_1?ie=UTF8&qid=1477514470&sr=8-1&keywords=family+of+saints or available at St. Benedict's as well as on their website at www.RealCatholicStuff.com. You can see the book listing here: https://realcatholicstuff.com/products/a-family-of-saints-the-martins-of-lisieux

This week: Shameless: Seeing Yourself as God Sees You

As a young adult, Jeff Cavins left the Catholic Church and became a protestant Pastor for 12 years. After returning to the Catholic Church, Jeff became a nationally known speaker who has helped hundreds of thousands come to a clearer understanding of Scripture and our Faith. In this presentation, Jeff explains the meaning of shame and teaches us how to engage the struggles of the heart.

coming soon We will be holding an Advent family Night on 30 November 2016. This will be in conjunction with Village Dinner on Wednesday night. Join us for the potluck dinner (bring a dish to share) and we will make advent wreaths together along with crafts and activities for the children. This event is open to everyone in the Parish. The church will purchase wreath forms and candles at a bulk discount. We ask that you bring your own greenery for decorating. Please email Maria Barontini at maria.barontini@princeofpeacetaylors.org by 18 November, if you would like to participate so she can order the correct number of wreaths. Also we will need volunteers to help with this event (perfect opportunity for our confirmation students to get some parish hours!) please email Maria Barontini if you are interested in assisting.

holyland olivewood Holy Land Olivewood is here this weekend of 19-20 November, there is a display of beautiful Olivewood hand carvings from the town of Bethlehem in the Narthex.. These carvings are made by Christians of Bethlehem who use them as their source of income. These brothers and sisters of ours are enduring hardships at this moment because of the volatile situation in their home country. Christians in the Holy land used to be more than 30% of the population, now they are less than 1.5% because of the situation. You can support them by purchasing these carvings. By sending the proceeds back to the craftsmen's families, this solution has allowed Christian families to remain in their homeland and work at their traditional crafts. The money flowing back to the families has allowed them to maintain a stable way of life and allowed them to work at what they know best.

pregnancy Loss The Catholic Church recognizes that life exists from the moment of conception. Unfortunately, for those families who have suffered the lost of a pregnancy there is a lack of recognition for that precious life. Many times it is the recognition that can provide closure and comfort to those who have lost. Prince of Peace would like to welcome all families who are experiencing or have experienced a miscarriage to request a "Certificate of Precious Life." This certificate would be personalized for you and your child. Our hope is to not only provide families with some closure, but to acknowledge and always remember that your child, no matter how small, existed and was a gift from God. If interested or if you have questions, please contact Angie Zuendt at 330-221-9284 or azuendt@gmail.com
