Dr Timothy Gray is the president of the Augustine Institute and is a well known Scripture scholar and Catholic speaker. With fascinating detail and examples, Dr Gray discusses the profound importance for individuals, and for modern society, of properly observing Sunday as the Lord's Day by exploring God's gift of the Sabbath in the Old Testament. He aims to help us reclaim our Sunday from the hustle and bustle of our busy lives.

dante's divine comedy We are going to begin reading Dante's Divine Comedy, widely regarded as among the greatest pieces of world literature ever written. The Comedy is a description, rich in philosophical and theological content, of one man's journey through the afterlife - Hell, Purgatory, and Heaven. While many non-Catholics tend to associate Dante with his vision of Hell, he in fact spends most of his Comedy among the saved. Dante has been rightly called the "poet of the popes" as many pontiffs have encouraged Catholics to read his masterpiece. Pope Paul VI went as far as to call Dante "the poet of theologians and the theologian of poets" and Pope Benedict XV called the Divine Comedy "the fifth gospel." Pope Francis has recommended Catholics take up this book during the Year of Mercy, calling Dante "a prophet of hope, herald of the possibility of redemption, liberation and the profound transformation of every man and woman, of all humanity." Join us on Tuesday evenings (7 - 8:30p) from 31 May to 30 August, in the middle school building, as we journey from the depths of sin to the very face of God! The recommended version of the text is Mark Musa's The Portable Dante. If you have any questions email Nathan Barontini at: nathanbarontini@gmail.com momnipotent-a movement to reclaim a vocation Is being a mother what you thought it would be? The exhaustion, monotony, mounting unfinished projects, a loss of a sense of self... Too many moms, especially young and new moms, do in fact feel disillusioned. Maybe you feel you've been sold a bill of goods, that success and happiness are not possible through the vocation to motherhood. Many moms quietly resign themselves to the idea that success, happiness and fulfillment are things they will need to find in spite of motherhood, not because of it.

In Momnipotent, Danielle Bean understands all this first-hand and meets women where they are. With great wit, wisdom, and compassion, she provides much-needed encouragement to all women and beautifully resonates with their feminine hearts.

The MOMNIPOTENT study is coming to Prince of Peace! Beginning Monday, 6 June through 1 August (with no meeting on July 4) we will meet in the middle school building at 7:30p. Please contact Stephanie Lasitter at stephanie.lasitter@princeofpeacetaylors.org or 864.331.3905 to sign up. You will receive the MOMNIPOTENT book and journal combination with your enrollment at no cost. Please join us!

The mission of Prince of Peace is to share the fullness of the Gospel to all we encounter in our lives by equipping disciples to create and strengthen a personal relationship with Christ. By the grace of God, we are called to strive for personal holiness, participate fully in the vibrant life of the Church's Tradition and transform the world.
